

Hill Documents

How to Obtain

AAIDD | The Arc | AUCD | NACDD | SAGE | UCP

How to Obtain Hill Documents

These include bills, laws, regulations, committee reports, and congressional records.

Note: Since the Anthrax postal scare of 2001, requesting documents via the internet, fax, telephone, or in person are the preferred options.

Via the Internet

Thomas (online Library of Congress): <http://thomas.loc.gov/>

Government Printing Office: <http://www.gpoaccess.gov/index.html>

From the U.S. Senate

Telephone number: 202-224-7860

Fax number: 202-228-2815

Address: Senate Document Room, B-04 Hart Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C.

May obtain one copy of six different items at no charge.

From the U.S. House of Representatives

Telephone number: 202-226-5200

FAX number: 202-226-4362

Address: House Legislative Resource Center, B-25 Ford House Office Building, Washington, D.C.

May obtain one copy of 12 different items at no charge.

For Copies of Hearing Documents and Committee Prints

Call: The U.S. Government Printing Office at 202-512-1808

Or use their on-line address: <http://bookstore.gpo.gov/>