

The National Center on Criminal Justice & Disability

Supporting criminal justice professionals to better protect and serve citizens with disabilities

The Arc's National Center on Criminal Justice and Disability (NCCJD) is building the capacity of the criminal justice system to respond to gaps in existing services for people with disabilities. NCCJD's focus is on people with intellectual and development disabilities (I/DD) who remain a hidden population in the criminal justice system.

NCCJD's products and services include:

- Training and technical assistance
(including monthly webinars, web-based and on-site training)
- Information and referral
(see NCCJD's website for a form or e-mail us)
- On-line resource library
(includes searchable resources by profession, archived webinars, news articles, state-by-state database of relevant laws and legislation, expert attorneys, witnesses, forensic interviewers, and victim advocates)

Coming soon:

NCCJD Pathway to Justice Training program for law enforcement, victim advocates and legal professionals.

MISSION

NCCJD is the national focal point for the collection and dissemination of resources and serve as a bridge between criminal justice and I/DD professionals. NCCJD will pursue and promote safety, fairness and justice for all people with intellectual and developmental disabilities as suspects, offenders, victims or witnesses. This center was made possible through a grant from the Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA) U.S. Department of Justice.
